

Adult Learning Act

Province Seeks Input on proposed Regulations for the Adult Learning Act

The Department of Labour and Advanced Education is seeking input from Nova Scotians on the proposed regulations for the Adult Learning Act.

Proposed regulations for the Adult Learning Act were released September 30, 2011, in English and French, and are available at our website www.gonssal.ca

The department is holding regional sessions for adult learning partners who work directly with the adult education division and learners, but anyone may provide comments. The deadline is Monday, October 31, 2011.

How to participate

If you are interested in providing comments, ideas and/or suggestions, please contact the Adult Education Division of the Nova Scotia Department of Labour and Advanced Education by:

Faxing a letter to Adult Education at (902) 424-1171

Emailing the Adult Education Division at desmonhh@gov.ns.ca

Write to us at:

Nova Scotia Department of Labour and Advanced Education
Adult Education Division
2021 Brunswick Street, PO Box 578
Halifax, NS B3J 2S9

In order for us to fully consider your comments, please contact us by October 31.

Please note that our summary of the feedback we receive may list the names of individuals and groups who make comments or submissions. Unless comments are marked confidential, we will assume respondents agree to the Department quoting from or referring to comments made.

Respondents should be aware that the Nova Scotia Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act may require us to release information contained in submissions. Therefore, you should not include the names of other parties (such as the names of other adult learners, service providers or instructors) or any other information from which other parties could be identified, unless their permission has first been obtained. Further, if you, as an individual, want to make a submission or provide comments and you do not want your name and personal information to be made public, you should not include your name or other information, such as an address, by which you could be identified in the main body of the submission.

Thank you for taking the time to participate.

Should you have any questions please contact:

Helen Desmond-Morris, Research & Project Officer, Adult Education Division, Nova Scotia Department of Labour and Advanced Education at 424-3820 or desmonhh@gov.ns.ca
