

Seniors' Literacy and Learning Partnership Award

The Seniors' Literacy and Learning Partnership Award recognizes an outstanding partnership between community-based literacy and seniors' organizations in the provision of quality learning programs for older Nova Scotians.

Criteria for this award include:

- delivering quality programs
- demonstrating outstanding partnerships
- applying innovative learning activities
 - celebrating learners' successes
- promoting literacy learning for seniors
- enabling participants to apply new learnings to their lives

Nominations for the award are held during the spring and is coordinated by Seniors' and the Department of Labour and Advanced Education. The award is presented at the annual International Literacy Day ceremony in September.
